ECLECTIC MAGAZINE. LITERATURE, SCIENCE & ART.

New Volume begins January 1866. THE ECLECTIC MAGAZINE is, as its name I indicates, a selection from other magazines and periodicals. These selections are carefully made each month, from the entire range of for-eign Periodicals. In this respect it is entirely unlike other monthlies, and has no rival. The following are some of the works from which selections are made: London Quarterly, British Review, Saturday Review, Leisure Hour, Westminster Review, Dublin University Magazine, Art Journal, Revue de Deux Mondes, London Society, Bentley's Miscellany, Cornhill Magazine, Fraser's Magazine, Temple Bar, Chambers's Journal, Edin burgh Review, London National Review. We have also arranged to secure choice selections from the French, German and other Continental Periodicals, translated especially for the ECLECTIC, and it is hoped this new feature will add greatly to the variety and value of the work. EMBELLISHMENTS.

THE Plantation of the undersigned, in Edgefield District, on Saluda River, 6 miles below Chappell's Depot, containing about 1212 acres. Also 750 to 800 acres of Well-timbered Land, within one mile of the river tract, at their nearest points. The river tract will be rented or sold alone. It has 500 acres or more cleared and under fence, 400 of which are in good effiture; 150 to 200 are admirably suited to the production of cotton, especially if guano is used, as the soil possesses the proper admixture of sand. The remainder, composed mainly of creek and river bottoms, is good for corn and small grain. There are some 40 or 50 acres of uncleaned creek and river bottoms, of the finest quality. Eigh y to 100 acres are already seeded in wheat. There are on the place a comfortable Dwelling with eight rooms. Cabins for about 40 or 50 laborers and their families, and every out-building
